FLOREX, at New Site, Nov. 30-Dec. 2

The organizers of the annual FLOREX Stamp Show invite collectors to make plans to be in pleasantly warm and sunny Central Florida in late fall—and to include FLOREX in your plans. FLOREX, the largest World Series of Philately show in the Southeast, will be held November 30 through December 2.

This year it will be held in a new location, the Osceola Heritage Park Events Center, Hall B, located in Kissimmee, Florida. The modern facility is located one mile west of the intersection of the Florida Turnpike and 192. More information on the site, including directions, can be found at <https://www.ohpark.com/venues/detail/events-center>.

The show organizers have lined up three nearby properties that have agreed to block rooms for the show. You will want to be aware of the closing dates of those blocks when making reservations. Hotel information can be found at <http://www.florestampshow.com>, the show website.

The General Chairman of the show, Francis Ferguson, can be reached by e-mail at show@FlorestampShow.com or by phoning 407-493-0956 with any questions regarding the show. FLOREX is sponsored by the Florida Stamp Dealers Association (www.FloridaStampDealers.org) and hosted by members of the Central Florida Stamp Club (www.CentralFloridaStampClub.org). The show website is

The show will feature up to 40 dealers from all over North America, occupying 59 booths. The USPS will have a booth, as will Nordica, representing the postal administrations of Faroe Islands, Denmark, Greenland, Iceland, Finland, Aland, Norway and Sweden.

This year's show also will feature up to 200 frames of competitive exhibits, representing nearly 3,200 pages of material. The APS accredited judging will be headed by Stephen Reinhard of Mineola, N.Y. Rounding out the panel will be Ken Martin of Bellefonte, Pa.; Stephen S. Washburn of Philadelphia, Pa.; Jerry H. Miller of Glen Ellyn, Ill.; and Ed Kroft, of Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

The FLOREX 2018 show cancel and cachet theme is to be "100 Years of Air Mail Service". Additional events at this year's show will include; Youth area (with Buckets of Stamps, while supplies last), a USPS booth, door prizes, and a grand prize to be awarded at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, December 2.

FLOREX 2018 will have the Society of Israel Philatelists as the primary group participating and exhibiting. Additional societies include the Florida Postal History Society, American Association of Philatelic Exhibitors and Germany Philatelic Society, Chapter 23.

Specific times and places for events may be found on the show website as more information becomes available.
