The Garfield-Perry Stamp Club, which this year is celebrating 133 years of continuous activity as a stamp club, will host its annual March Party stamp exhibition, the largest annual event in Ohio for stamp collectors, Friday, March 17, through Sunday, March 19 at the Best Western Plus Strongsville, 15471 Royalton Road, Strongsville OH 44136, just off the Route 82 exit from I-71 and with convenient access to I-80 and Cleveland Hopkins airport.

The show is open 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Sunday. The March Party is free and open to the public, and non-collectors, new collectors, and experienced philatelists all are welcomed. Ample free parking is available.

The dealer bourse will include 38 dealers occupying more than 40 tables and offering a wide range of philatelic material available for sale, including stamps, covers, postcards, and related literature and supplies. The U.S. Postal Service and the United Nations Postal Administration also will have postal stations at the show.

The March Party will feature the meeting of the Ohio Postal History Society. The 160 frame exhibition includes both single- and multi-frame exhibits presenting a wide variety of both United States and foreign stamps and postal history, ranging from classic early material to 20th century issues. All exhibits are available for public viewing during show hours.

The dealer list, a full schedule of meetings and other events, exhibit titles and other information about the show is available on the website, www.garfieldperry.org.

The March Party is an APS World Series of Philately show. The grand award winner qualifies for the APS Champion of Champions competition to be held at the Great American Stamp Show 2023 in Cleveland this August 10-13.
