

NAPEX, East Coast's Largest Show, June 7-9

Collectors will find a treasure trove of stamps and covers at NAPEX, the East Coast's largest stamp show, which will be held June 7-9, 2019 at the McLean Hilton, 7920 Jones Branch Drive, McLean, Va. With 69 dealers from across America selling philatelic material from around the world and over 200 frames of competitive exhibits in the World Series of Philately Exhibition, both expert and novice collectors will discover something for them.

NAPEX is conveniently located just off exit 46A from the Capital Beltway, with easy access from local airports and METRO. Hours are Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sunday from 10 to 4.

NAPEX is hosting an auction by the House of Zion, Redwood City, Calif., on Sunday, June 9 at 1:30 p.m. The auction will focus on Israel and Judaica.

This year's show will feature the bourse with 69 stamp dealers as well as representatives from the United States Postal Service, the United Nations Postal Service, and the Israeli Philatelic Agency.

Other highlights of the show will include:

More than 200 frames of philatelic exhibits on display. This year's jury consists of Daniel Warren (chair), Roland Cipolla, Edwin Kroft, Jane Sodero, and Pat Walker.

National conventions of the U.S. Philatelic Classics Society, the Society of Israel Philatelists, and the Bermuda Philatelic Society. Several other groups also will hold meetings at the show, including the International Society of Worldwide Stamp Collectors, the Ebony Society of Philatelic Events and Reflections (ESPER), and the American Association of Philatelic Exhibitors.

The USPS will provide a different cancellation each day of the show honoring the 50th Anniversary of Apollo 11. Once again, the NAPEX committee will sell specially produced engraved cachets and souvenir cards printed by Mike Bean, a retired Bureau of Engraving and Printing plate printer.

On Thursday, June 6, NAPEX will host an APS On-the-Road Course entitled "Washington-Franklins: There's No Need to Be Afraid." Guy Gasser will be the instructor.

On Saturday, June 7, the show will host its popular cachet makers bourse, where first day cover producers will offer their products for sale.

John Schorn, the show chair, said, "NAPEX is proud to be not only the largest stamp show on the East Coast but also the friendliest. We welcome all stamp collectors, from beginners to experts. Spend a day at our show to see how interesting and fun stamp collecting can be."

Admission to the show is free. Free parking is provided. To nurture new collectors, the show will host a children's area and will give free stamps to all children.

This is the forty-fourth NAPEX stamp show. NAPEX was founded in 1949 as the National Stamp Exhibitions of Washington, DC, Inc. NAPEX is the premier stamp show of the Nation's Capital and an American Philatelic Society World Series of Philately show.
